Stewardship Prayer Unison

Generous God, you have called us your children and given us a purpose greater than ourselves.
We thank you for the saints who came before us,
who gave their gifts, their time, and their prayers
so that we might know your love in this place.
Receive what we offer today, that those who come after us
may also find a home here and know they belong to you.
Make us faithful saints in our own generation.
In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen

HOLY COMMUNION

At the Table with the Saints

Confession and Assurance

All: Beloved God,
who was known to our mothers and fathers,
and even to our spiritual forebears,
have mercy on us.
We do not always love as you would have us love.
We do not always do as you would have us do.
In our stubbornness,
we turn from you when we should turn toward you.
Comfort us when we mourn the passing of friends
and family,
and help us to know that they are rejoicing in your presence.
We praise you for the grace you shower on us,
constantly forgiving our errors,
especially the ones that we don't share with any but
you.
Hear now the silent fears and worries of our hearts.

A time of silence

Pastor: Though our ancestors did not follow God's ways perfectly, we have hope in the One who did! Jesus, a man of a particular people in a particular time, taught through his words and deeds that God has already forgiven us. Thus, we and all who have come before us are rightly known as saints – the holy ones of God! Thanks be to God for God's mercy, grace, and love!
Amen!

Greeting Each Other as Siblings in Christ

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

for All Saints

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a joy, to give you thanks, Creator God.
You formed us from the dust, and breathed your life into us.

In every generation you have called a people to yourself:

Sarah and Abraham, Miriam and Moses, Ruth and David, prophets and apostles, Mary and Joseph, martyrs and
quiet saints,
our parents and grandparents, our friends,
and the children who will come after us.
With them, and with all the company of heaven, we join
the song that never ends:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son, Jesus Christ.
He healed and taught, welcomed the outcast, and ate
with sinners.
Through his death and resurrection you broke the power of sin and death
and made us your people by water and the Spirit.
On the night before he died, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: “Take and eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Sending Music

*When the church service is over,
our service begins!*

After supper he took the cup, gave thanks, and said:
“Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Remembering all that Christ has done,
we offer ourselves to you in praise and thanksgiving
as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
that we may be for the world the body of Christ.

Bind us together with all your saints, in heaven and on earth,
especially those we hold in our hearts today.

Creator God, we give you thanks for these loved ones
who have joined the church triumphant this year:

Most Holy God, surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, give us strength to run the race set before us, with our eyes on Jesus, until we feast together at your heavenly table.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Receiving the Bread and Cup

by intinction

When you come forward to receive the bread and cup, you are invited to light a candle at the table in memory of someone you love who has gone before us.
